Guest Speaker

Allison Daley Olson
CFRW Legislative Advocate

Will be Speaking on
ADVOCACY WORKSHOP

Legislative Advocate Allison Daley Olson joined the CFRW team on September 1, 2009.

Allison is a graduate of the University of California, Davis Campus, with a degree in Political Science. She and husband Rob live in Davis.

Allie was the Deputy Finance Director for the McClintock for Congress campaign and previously interned with Wilson-Miller Communications in Sacramento, a position that included tracking California legislation for clients of that firm.

No stranger to Republican volunteer organizations, she chaired the Davis College Republicans from June of 2006 until May of 2008. She was also a fellow with the Foundation for Defense of Democracies from April of 2007 to May of 2008. During that time, Allison studied in Israel and Washington, D. C., with counter-terror experts.

President’s Message

Boots on the Ground

I am excited to announce that our club has grown by 25 members in just two and a half months. We welcome all our new members and we would like to invite all the ladies to become involved in volunteer projects that we have planned for this year.

On Wednesday, March 14, eight of our members volunteered at the Sacramento County Republican Party Headquarters. Eight members labeled and stamped voter registration verification postcards that were sent out to new Republicans. The volunteers that joined me were Margie DeRow, Jenny Mitchell, Mary Ann Winters, Ruth Crane, Sandy Stultz, Janet Gardner, Beverlee Gross. We had a good time working together for four hours and Jared Kopp brought us pizza for lunch.

It is time to step up and join in force at the 3rd Annual Tax Day Rally/March that will be held on Saturday, April 14. The march will begin on the East end of the Tower Bridge at 11:00 am; there will be parking in Old Sacramento and Raley Field. The rally will be held at the West steps of the State Capitol (10th Street between L & N Streets) at 12 noon and will end at 2:30 pm.

Our efforts are now focused on the CFRW Advocacy Workshop. Suzanne Jones and her team are contacting schools and will be collecting donations to send students to the workshop that will be held on April 16 and April 17, 2012. The students we sponsor will have the opportunity to meet our elected officials, learn about current issues and, as future voters, gain an understanding of Republican values.

The future of our country is up to us. We will need all your support and some of your valuable time to make sure all Republicans get out the vote so we can elect Republicans in our communities, keep the Republican majority in the House of Representatives, win a Republican majority in the Senate and most important nominate a strong Republican for President in 2012. With our Sacramento Republican Women ARMY, we can make this happen.

CFRW YOUTH ADVOCACY PROGRAM
April 16 - 17, 2012
Sacramento, CA

The purpose of the Youth Advocacy Program is to educate our youth to be good citizens and future leaders. It is a program that encourages our young people to know how their government works and to feel that they can have an impact.

During the Sacramento Youth Advocacy trip the high school students will have an opportunity to tour the Capitol in Sacramento, meet legislators, attend a legislative committee meeting, participate in a fun and interactive Monday night dinner, (connecting with other like-minded youth), as well as attending an all day program on Tuesday with special speakers and events put on by the CFRW Advocacy Chair. The Youth Advocacy Program is a great opportunity for the students to see our California government in action. Our students will come away from this trip armed with the knowledge that our leaders in Sacramento are accessible.

SCHOLARSHIPS

If you have a child or grandchild who would be interested in pursuing one of the scholarships from CFRW or NFRW, please contact one of the following: Karen Klinger, JoAnn Raney or Lou Green and they will get you the information and applications needed. You can also go on the NFRW website for more details on Scholarships or CFRW Northern Division's website for the two additional scholarships that are available.

Karen Klinger, JoAnn Raney & Lou Green
Thank You Dear Lord,

For the privilege and blessings You have so abundantly given us as Republican Women, citizens of California and America.

We meet in spirit of sisterhood, sharing our knowledge and encouraging one another as we willingly work and sacrifice for what we believe in. You know we are women who care deeply about the future of our country, our standards and convictions.

Bless us, we pray, as we endeavor to elect strong leaders in these bleak and uncertain times. Provide us with true patriots with integrity and high principles; unselfish men and women whom gold cannot buy, that evil cannot lead, and that ambition cannot pervert.

When America seems at its weakest, we must be at our strongest. Psalm 31:25 tells us to “Be strong and take heart, all you who hope in the Lord.”

In your Name, Amen

Brown’s Budget Blunder

As reported in previous Capitol Updates, Governor Brown’s 2012-2013 budget relies heavily on questionable trigger cuts and risky fund shifting. This week the Senate held hearings regarding Governor Brown’s budget, specifically Prop 98 and the proposed trigger cuts.

Proposition 98 was passed in 1988 and requires the state to spend no less than 39% on K-12 education in the budget. Because of this requirement the state has already cut as much as it constitutionally can from K-12 education. Therefore Governor Brown’s trigger cuts might be at risk of legal action if this budget remains and his proposed ballot measure does not pass.

Governor Brown’s tax initiative that will be on the November ballot would increase income taxes on top California earners (those making $250,000 or more) and also increase the sales tax by half a cent. But Governor Brown’s tax plan has several potential competitor tax plans that decrease the chances of his plan passing. Two competitor plans in particular, put a real wrench in the Governor’s plan. One, proposed by Molly Munger and the California Teacher’s Federation, is called the Tax Increase for Education Initiative and the other is called the Millionaire’s Tax. Governor Brown opposes both plans and has expressed concern that if these competing measures make it to the ballot all tax increase measures are likely to fail.

This is just the beginning of the impending budget battle. As you will recall, the budget may be passed with a simple majority vote, no longer needing the 2/3rds majority vote now reserved only for any and all levies and fees within the budget. Brown’s budget is heavy on cuts and spending shifts and he circumvented the need for a 2/3rds vote for tax increases because of the law change and he placed his tax plan on the November 2012 ballot. AMERICANISM

April 16 is Income Tax Day. That day should be written in all capital letters in Red on your calendar at home because it’s a very important day. If you pay taxes, you’re supporting all the people in our country who do not pay taxes.

I remember when one of the TV news magazines did an interview with Barack Obama’s Kenyan aunt who now lives in the USA. She gets paid for some disability or another which does not affect her in any discernable way. She gets food stamps or as they’re now called SNAP which stands for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program, a Section 8 house, free medical care, and appears to have disposable income that allows her to live very comfortably. When asked by the interviewer how she feels about all these things that are given to her by the American tax payer, her reply was that America is a free country. To her, free meant just that, everything was free for the taking.

Obama is trying to destroy the cohesiveness that unites all Americans in his rants against the rich whom he claims don’t pay their fair share. It’s the American dream that no matter where we were born on the monetary scale, each of us can rise to middle class or beyond. The United States is made up of self-made men and women.

I read that 47 million Americans are now on food stamps. An American need not be unemployed or even poor to be eligible for food stamps. I remember that in the 1970’s the food stamp program was in danger of being discontinued and there was a big push or “outreach” in California to sign more people up for the program. We know nothing is free. There is another push on to enlarge the program. I heard a radio public service announcement that featured a father and daughter preparing a nutritious meal bought with food stamps or Cal Fresh as the California program is now called. As more people become aware of all the programs for housing, food, medical care, and education for which they are eligible, the more taxes must be found to pay for these programs. As we get closer to the election, there will be more Democratic-manufactured envy of the middle-class and beyond by those who pay no taxes, but expect everything—food, housing, education, health care—to be free. “Occupy Wall Street” will become “Riots on Wall Street.”

We’re all Americans. We’re the most generous nation on Earth. But when half the population thinks they are entitled to get everything for free, the half that are footing the bills are going to find they cannot afford to expand their businesses or hire new employees or even continue to do business in the USA.

This is what happens when a community organizer becomes the ruler of a country. Please work to elect Republicans, and work to change the hearts and minds of the Democrats.

God Bless and Save the USA.

Fran Kruger, Americanism Chairman (916) 638-5984 efkruger@sbcglobal.net

CARING FOR AMERICA

As I look out the window, rain is falling, and it is pretty dreary. Even though our calendar says the first day of spring is March 20th, it really seems like we are finally getting a little winter weather. But, if it continues, so that we have April showers, the promise is, we will be blessed with May flowers. Isn't it wonderful we can always look ahead to something good? The CFRW Advocacy Workshop is coming up in April. That means we will have the opportunity to expose some of our young people to the workings of our government. What better way to care for the future of America than by preparing the youth of America to take their places as caring and positively informed advocates for our great country. They in turn will be able to pick up and carry our banner for freedom and a government for all people, not just the needy or those who have an attitude of entitlement.

Dear, dear SRWF members - Let us continue to remember and support our military personnel whenever we get the opportunity. Each of us can do things individually, in addition to our group activities. Also, let's not forget we can start to think of our Back to School contributions to the Sacramento Children's Receiving Home. I am always so humbled and grateful for the extreme generosity of our wonderful women. Thank you a million times over -

Sandra Sinclair - Director (916) 422-0373
Voter Registration

Voter Registration:

We are working on small opportunities for Voter Registration since the Naturalization Ceremonies will no longer be held at Memorial Auditorium. Will keep you posted. If you have anyone who needs to register or update their registration, let me know, and we will make sure they get a form.

Elections:

We are beginning our volunteer work at SCRP Headquarters. A group of 10 of our ladies helped with a Voter Registration project on Wednesday, March 14th. We will have more opportunities going forward in 2012, and our help is vital in the county’s Voter Registration, Precinct Operations and GOTV efforts!

There will be an orientation for volunteers and Precinct Leaders on Saturday, April 21 from 9 am until noon.

Campaign School: On Saturday, March 31, the Sacramento Valley Lincoln Club and the Sacramento County Republican Party are sponsoring a campaign school for candidates running for local offices. Cost is $20 (includes breakfast and lunch) and it runs from 9 am to 5 pm. It is open to anyone who is interested in learning more about campaigns.

Republicans Stand with Mayor Villaraigosa, Los Angeles Unified To Protect Students from Dangerous Preditors

Prompted by the recent allegations of disturbing teacher misconduct in the Los Angeles Unified School District, Senate and Assembly Republicans today unveiled legislation to ensure student safety and expedite the process to remove educators who engage in criminal behavior.

“Public schools are supposed to be havens for safe learning, not a proving ground for sexual predators,” said Senate Republican Leader Bob Huff, of Diamond Bar. “The recent arrest of two Miramonte Elementary teachers for lewd acts against their students shows that we must change the law to protect our kids. That’s why Republicans are standing with Mayor Villaraigosa and Los Angeles Unified to enact reforms to empower local districts and ensure that a Miramonte-like tragedy never happens again.”

“Parents have enough to worry about these days without having to fear for their children’s safety when they are at school,” said Assembly Republican Leader Connie Conway, of Tulare. “The unspeakable crimes that Miramonte students were victims of must never happen again. This is why it is so important that we come together – Republicans and Democrats alike – and pass these reforms.”

The proposals by Senate and Assembly Republicans, which will be introduced this week as legislation, would enact urgent reforms as requested in letters to the Governor and legislative leaders by Mayor Villaraigosa and L.A. Unified officials. These measures were crafted in response to recent incidents such as the current scandal surrounding Mark Berndt, a third grade teacher investigated by law enforcement for more than two years for lewd acts against his students. He was arrested earlier this year and charged with 23 counts of lewd conduct.

Among the reforms that Republicans are proposing today are:

- Eliminating Restrictions in Union Contracts
- Removing “Four Year” Rule
- Ending Unnecessary Delays in Dismissal Process
- Reforming the Panel Review Process
- Conforming Disciplinary Pay
- Creating a Paper Trail
- Stripping Pension from Felons

RNC Talking Points:
Obama Administration Violates Religious Rights

The President's mandate threatens the Constitution

- President Obama's mandate is an affront to the First Amendment and the freedom of religion.
- The Obama administration is attempting to control the behavior of religious organizations, forcing them to violate tenets of their faiths.
- Obama has decided that Obamacare is more important to him than the Bill of Rights. This is about religious freedom
- The issue is the same, regardless of the substance of the mandate: Government is bullying religious organizations and trampling on Constitutional rights.
- This opens the door for even greater violations of the Constitution and further big government intrusion in Americans' lives.
- The White House will attempt to spin the issue to smear their opponents. The issue is not health services; it's the Constitution.

The impact on society could be significant

- If the President does not reverse course, groups like Catholic charities, hospitals, and schools could decide to close their doors rather than violate their beliefs.
- Many Americans who benefit from their work and services would suffer as a result. This is not the first assault on the Constitution from Obama
- Earlier this year, Obama defied precedent and made political appointments while Congress was in session, pretending they were "recess appointments."
- When the Constitution stands in the way of his agenda, President Obama simply disregards the Constitution.

National Federation of Republican Women
Supports Senate Amendment Reversing Contraception Mandate

ALEXANDRIA, Va. - Rae Lynne Chornenky, President of the National Federation of Republican Women (NFRW), issued the following statement regarding the Republican-backed amendment in the U.S. Senate that would reverse President Obama's recent mandate that all employers provide contraception coverage for employees.

"The National Federation of Republican Women applauds Republicans in the U.S. Senate for taking quick and decisive action to reverse President Obama's overreaching contraception mandate," Chornenky said.

"For political reasons, Democrats have contrived to turn this into a women's health issue by scaring women into believing that Republicans want to outlaw contraception. Nothing could be further from the truth. Republicans do not oppose contraception. We oppose an administration that ignores the First Amendment and bullies religious organizations into violating the tenets of their faith."

Psalm 109:8 My wife and I were in slow-moving traffic the other day and we were stopped behind a car that had an unusual Obama bumper sticker on it. It read: "Pray for Obama. Psalm 109:8".

When we got home my wife got out the Bible and opened it up to the scripture. She started laughing & laughing. Then she read it to me. I couldn't believe what it said. I had a good laugh, too.

Psalm 109:8 ~ "Let his days be few and brief; and let others step forward to replace him."

At last -- I can honestly voice a Biblical prayer for our president! Look it up -- it is word for word!

Let us all bow our heads and pray.

Brothers and Sisters, can I get an AMEN?
THANK YOU

National Federation of Republican Women
Affirms GOP Support of Women at Board Meeting

Refutes Democrats' Claim of 'Republican War on Women'

NEW ORLEANS – More than 250 Republican women leaders from across the nation gathered at the National Federation of Republican Women’s (NFRW) spring board meeting in New Orleans on March 15-17 to prepare for the 2012 elections and to declare that the latest Democrat media strategy is just a cheap political ploy.

“Democrats are running around squawking about a ‘Republican War on Women,’” NFRW President Rae Lynne Chornenky said. “They are ignoring the indisputable fact that the NFRW has more than 75,000 female members whose leadership, influence, skill and passion for conservative principles form the backbone of our party, and have for more than 70 years. This liberal campaign scheme is clearly a sign of desperation and is simply not rooted in fact.”

Chornenky encouraged attendees to stand strong during this critical campaign year. “It will take all of us, working as a unified team, to restore effective leadership to our great nation. We must elect a Republican president and U.S. Senate in November, and maintain our numbers in the U.S. House and in state and local governments.”

In preparation for the elections, attendees participated in workshops on the national political landscape and on counteracting voter fraud. In addition, Louisiana Gov. Bobby Jindal delivered an inspirational keynote address on why conservative initiatives are working in his state and across the nation.

Founded in 1938, the NFRW has thousands of active members in local clubs across the nation and in several U.S. territories, making it one of the largest women’s political organizations in the country. The grassroots organization works to promote the principles and objectives of the Republican Party, elect Republican candidates, inform the public through political education and activity, and increase the effectiveness of women in the cause of good government.

SUNSHINE
We received some interesting news about Sadie Onnigan, one of our founding members, and her husband Pete, celebrated their 70th wedding anniversary! An Anniversary card was sent wishing them many more.
Sue Scott recently hit a hole in one at the Northridge Country Club golf course. That is a real accomplishment! We are proud of you, Sue!
Jan High has completed her chemotherapy, and is doing very well. She is getting back to her activities, and really looks great.
Phyllis DeLoe has a son Derek, who is an architectural engineer for Boeing in Seattle. He has had two surgeries, and may need to have another for brain cancer. Phyllis will be joining him in Seattle. Phyllis, our thoughts, and prayers are with you.
Please send info that you may have about our members, and I will be glad to call them and send cards. Send me happy and fun things too as travel, awards etc about them. Our members are interested. Have a happy April.
It would be greatly appreciated if you will send news to me. Send the sunshine happy things that are happening as well as illnesses.
